ON

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY,
NOVEMBER 1st and 2nd, 1928,
AT 1.30 P.M. PRECISELY.

On View Tuesday and Wednesday prior and Mornings of Sale.
PLEASE NOTE TIME AND PLACE OF SALE—1.30 P.M.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

FIRST.—The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and resold, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.

SECOND.—No person to advance less than 1s. ; above five pounds, 5s. ; and so on in proportion.

THIRD.—In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.

FOURTH.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5s. in the pound, or more in part of payment, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required ; in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.

FIFTH.—Each lot is believed to be genuine, but should any lot prove to be a forgery, or reprint, or wrongly described in the catalogue, the purchaser is at liberty to take or reject it, provided always that notice of such rejection be made and the lot returned within seven days from date of sale.

SIXTH.—To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale, and the remainder of the purchase-money must absolutely be paid on the delivery.

SEVENTH.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited ; all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be resold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such resale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.

EIGHTH.—The auctioneers will not hold themselves responsible for any action that may arise, acting solely as agents between buyer and seller and for both equitably.

GOLD MEDAL

for the

Battle of Orthes, 17th February, 1814,

to

CHARLES EDWARD CONYERS, C.B., 82nd Foot.

 Major-General Conyers joined the Army as Ensign in 1794, and was appointed Colonel of the 96th Regiment, February, 1852, served three years and a half in the West Indies, and was engaged on several occasions, particularly in the Mirebalois, at L'Ance à Veau, and at the siege of Irois in St. Domingo in 1798, where he was wounded while on the staff; during this siege, of three months' duration, the garrison lost more men than composed its original strength; commanded the remains of the 82nd at the evacuation of this island. Served in an expedition to the coast of France in 1800, and subsequently in the Mediterranean until 1802. From 1805 to 1809 he served throughout the Mediterranean, and in Egypt on the staff, and received a severe contusion there, having been at the attack on Alexandria, at the storming of Rosetta, and at the subsequent siege of that place. Served in the Peninsula and France in 1813 and 14, and in command of the 82nd during the operations on the Gave d'Oleron, at Hastings and Over le Gave, and was severely wounded at the head of the regiment at Orthes, for which battle he has received the gold medal.*
